You live in a time when a lost empire is rising again. At the heart of this empire lies the fantasy world of Drakkar. But what's left from Drakkar is not just a world. It is, on a deeper level, a lost legacy, which must be saved from destruction. To do this, brave knights and dragons must go to the realm of the mighty. The great fates await them on this path. Their goal is to give life to the golden fool, a mythical stone that arises only once in the history of the world. In order to save this lost legacy, the brave knights start the journey back into the heart of the fantasy world. You are given a mission by Carla, an NPC who will be your guide, in order to save the story around the gold fool. By playing it through, you get a deeper understanding of the Drakkar world and will help to save its story.

Key Features: play as Carla the Drakkar champion and solve puzzles and a mystery around a lost legacy in the Drakkar world the story is based on and around the game Drakkar, which was released in 2007 truly hours of gameplay in the Drakkar world at least 70% RPG and 30% RTS a whole world, its beautiful fantasy, amazing characters and the drama that you can explore in the game

An expansion to the SpellForce 2 series: After the release of Faith in Destiny, Amun Kar returns and starts the story about the fourth great sorcerer. The new story will follow the legendary golden fool and his adventures in the world of Drakkar. We already confirmed that it will be a trilogy with 3 scenarios and 4 free scenarios that will be available to everyone who bought the game. With Faith in Destiny, we also got the SpellForce 2 box for free! We are also thinking about a 4th expansion of Faith in Destiny. Believe it, or not we're excited and can't wait to see your reactions for SpellForce 2 - Faith in Destiny! A Christian expo in Lithuania (Kaunas) We just received the call for an interesting Christian expo in Lithuania. In 2012, there will be held the International Christian Expo in Kaunas. To participate in this Christian Expo, we are planning to release a Christian version of SpellForce 2, with new NPCs, new missions, and some extra features

Features Key:

- Original Game! Cosmic/OpenWorld Shooter. The storyline features rich and original plot, still we can not spoil the whole story for you yet. Your decisions and your fate will be recorded in the saga of the Lost Frontier. Tactical gameplay: bullet physics, character development, multiple game endings and a variety of missions & scenery... you are the commander of your own task force, and you have to protect your team during the strategy game
- A variety of Weapons, vehicles At your disposal, you will find a variety of anti-personnel rifles, revolvers, neutron mortars, laser cannons, missiles, heavy machine guns, hand grenades, Tesla cannons and many more. For each enemy you will find many different weapons in your arsenal for the different environments, weapons are similar to each other, but they have their own advantage such as speed, blinding effect, accuracy and many others.
- Original main weapon New Technology
- Modern Graphics Full 3D Graphics with a new style, improved textures and models
- Turn-Based Gameplay From tactical to strategic
- Comprehensive Character Choices Many choices: single male or female, which squad to assign to the group, age, appearance and health. Which old or young? Which bad or good? If you will assign Freight Officer to the group, will he/she ignore the orders and take your weapon for himself/herself? Can I make choices in the cinematic scenes? The answer to all of these questions will be in the game
- New and Engaging cutscene:
Not just a series of random cutscenes. The cutscene are linked with the game progress. For example, when you reached near a substation, you will see the helicopter only when you continue with your mission. The game will end when you have failing you out of the mission
- New peaceful mission which enhance intelligence data: Basic Information: The Lost Frontier allows you an opportunity to view intelligence data from the enemy that will never appear on the Home Missions/Reconnaissance missions
- Original 2 Level Game scripts:
