A: The reason you're getting "Invalid data" is because you don't have a valid XML document to parse. You're using this: >>> import xml.etree.ElementTree as ET >>> asXML = ET.tostring(ET.fromstring(xml)) This simply prints the XML document out as a string. If that doesn't work, you'll need to provide a valid XML document. Business 4 Ways to Make Smart Investment Decisions Thinking about investments can be scary, especially for those of us who have limited time and resources. And yet, it's an important part of your life. There is a lot to think about, and there are many decisions to make. As your finances improve, you might want to begin to think about the opportunities you have for growth. And, in particular, when it comes to your wealth management, you'll want to look at the many options available to you. As a matter of fact, when you consider making investments, you'll want to do it through a systematic approach. By doing so, you'll not only have a better outcome, but also more time to consider how the choices you make affect your life. Here are some important things to consider in your investing: 1. Know Your Goals First, you'll want to know what you are working towards. Do you have specific goals in mind, or are you considering your options as they come up over time? For some, there is a specific decision to be made. These might include things like which type of investment vehicle you want to use, and how to fund your retirement. Others might want to consider broader issues, such as deciding where they would like to live for the long term. There might be a property to be purchased, or maybe you'll want to consider investments in other locations. Whatever your circumstances, there are lots of questions to be considered. And, the most important question to ask is what matters most to you. 2. Look at Your Finances For example, do you have enough money for your investment needs? If not, you'll want to start with that as your first priority. For the many people looking for an investment vehicle, there are plenty of options to choose from. The easiest way to choose one is to invest through a robo
