Full Text The Wikipedia article for "Reformed Judeo-Christian civilization" claims that this is, in fact, a literal mistranslation of the original Aramaic name, and its meaning is closer to "From the County of Judah." The use of the phrase "From the County of Judah" is generally seen as having originated with the Latin scholar Gregory the Great, who was also Abbot of the Benedictine Monastery at St. Gall in Switzerland at the time. Gregory used it several times in his writings. But as
