federal appeals court on thursday dismissed a challenge to the consumer financial protection bureau, dealing a blow to opponents who had argued it was unconstitutional. the 7th u.s. circuit court of appeals in chicago refused to strike down the cfpb. it found that the agency was not unconstitutional because it did not directly regulate banks and was therefore not a "department of the government." the cfpb was created under the 2008 financial overhaul legislation that has been the subject of numerous legal challenges. the appeals court said that the plaintiffs "did not identify any statutory provision that unconstitutionally delegates authority to an independent agency," or any in which the agency exceeds its statutory authority.

the cfpb sued merrill lynch in 2010, alleging that the financial services company had violated cfpb regulations when it sold subprime mortgages to fannie mae and freddie mac, two federally backed companies. the plaintiffs asked the appeals court to overturn the law that established the cfpb and declared the bureau unconstitutional. they argued that the dodd-frank wall street reform and consumer protection act was unconstitutional because it allowed congress to delegate too much power to an independent agency. "this case is a farce," said justice department spokeswoman tracy schmalzer. "congress created the cfpb, it gave it sweeping authority, and it cannot be undone by a federal court based on a procedural challenge." the cfpb did not immediately comment.

Asha Jaoar Majhe Full Movie 19

If he can shoot Asha Jaoar Majhe in Kolkata for one week, he will complete his first film in the city, says Sengupta. And if he is able to shoot it for three weeks, the movie, in which he uses the backdrop of his profession, will become his first feature movie. Sengupta earlier announced his next as a period piece set against the backdrop of the last World War. Going to the Indo-Pakistan War Cemetery at Jammu, he has been fascinated by the sight of soldiers and his imagination comes alive as he writes the script. His debut feature, Akansha, released in January, goes on the big screen for its third screening on July 13. But Sengupta says that he could not resist the love that his father had for his mother. By the time, my father came back to my mother's house, she had gone into a deep depression and died, Sengupta says. My father made a promise that he would take care of his sister and brother. He would take them to the best schools in the country. He would let them have the best food that he ever ate. He would also let them go to the best dance shows. He promised them a full life, Sengupta says. Score: A special mention is due to the music director. The songs were beautifully set and the story has a whole lot of beautiful music. Mahendra Shetty and Sengupta composed the score for this film. You could hear the music, the songs even in the interiors. The film is a song-centric film, the most appreciable element of this film, says Sengupta. What goes on in the kitchen is always more important than what is on the table. The basic rhythm of day life is different from that of a metropolis, where the pace of life is dictated by the working hours. He is currently working on his next film titled Titli. Titli is a village in the small-time production house located in Moradabad in Uttar Pradesh that produces movies using people from its midst. Its very difficult to make a movie anywhere. Its not easy to get a budget, you have to raise it even then its not easy. In the case of Moradabad, the studios and stars are there. Nothing is big or small. 5ec8ef588b
